“ My late father, Jim Battershell, was a Defiance College buddy n roommate of Art in 1953. He so enjoyed their friendship often commenting on Art's humor n kindness. You certainly have our sympathy at this tough time. Perhaps this will cheer you? My mother Mary Rose Gerschutz-Battershell (also a Defiance College student) was telling me tonight how fond Dad was of Art n she remembered a funny college story. Art, another roommate and my dad were making hard cider in a bathtub that accidentally overflowed while they were at classes This sent their hooch through the floor of their second story apartment and into the downstairs living room of the landlord. Art n the boys evidently cleaned up the mess, the landlord was happy and of course... all had productive n giving lives. May God Bless

“ We were so sorry to hear of Arts passing. We both worked together with him at Tennecco for quite a few years. Quite the kidder, I'll miss hearing him say, "Sandy, honey, you just get prettier every day". He will be missed.

“ Tom was a neighbor to my family, and was a friend of my sister Mary. The Orthweins were so blessed to have Tom, always there if help was needed. He was so good to my Aunt Myra and her sister. Always fun to talk with and always had a good word. A life well lived. You have my sympathy. Helen (Orthwein) Fisher

“ As requested, I have made a donation to the Leukemia Society in Art's name. I shall miss our phone conversations, sharing the "aliments" of our disease. He gave me comfort and hope for the future. "Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28

“ Dear Julie..a bittersweet sympathy to share...Bitter because he couldn't fight any longer and had to go...sweet because we have such beautiful memories that we stay with us forever...

I have lost one of favorite people I've known for fifty years.

He was the highlight of my day every time he walked into the post office with his famous greeting " I'm the greatest.."

What he probably never knew is how uplifting he was and I started believing we are and thus pay it forward to others..I am so going to miss his funny words and antics...he was the greatest.

His greatest reward was to join those in Heaven....Heaven's greatest reward is having him there..

My greatest reward was knowing and having him in my life..

Peace be with you ...God's grace always.

“ I am so sorry. I had no clue his first name was Arthur. Funny how you know someone your whole life and miss the little things. He was always such a good neighbor to all who knew him. May he rest in peace. Kim

“ Julie- words cannot say enough- Tom was such a wonderful man!! Everytime he walked in to the store I'd always ask- "How are you Tom?" (and his reply was always the same) "I are the greatest- ".. then he would walk to the back and look for my mom- and say "JoLyn Nye you sweet thing!" Loved to stand and BS with him - always had a story and joke to tell. The funniest- is when my Steve was alive, Dad walked in the store and Steve said "hey Art"! I had to correct him and say his name is Tom!! Lol- Steve knew him as Art during the bowling days- which shocked me! Fantastic memories surround me with him, and those are the moments I will cherish forever- God Bless you all- heaven gained an amazing angel yesterday-
